SUBJECT: Weekly Report

11. In an effort to enhance OC recruitment effort, nine OC personnel recently worked on Saturday, 29 March, placing phone calls to applicants who received Personnel History Statement packages over a month ago but had not yet returned the completed forms for processing. A total of 643 calls were placed with 146 applicants stating that they were still interested in employment with OC and that they would be sending the packages back within the week. Of those individuals declining, international terrorism was given as the foremost reason for them not pursuing Agency employment. An additional recruitment effort during the reporting period resulted in the receipt of 348 resumé responses following the publication of an East Coast advertisement. All resumé have been reviewed with 90 being rejected by OC and turned over to the Office of Personnel for further consideration by other Agency components. A total of 258 Personal History Statement packages were sent out to prospective applicants.
